

ELLE

On our very first day at Harvard a very wise professor quoted Aristotle, "The law is reason free from passion." Well, no offense to Aristotle, but in my three years at Harvard I have come to find that passion is a key ingredient to the study and practice of law and of life. It is with passion, courage of conviction and strong sense of self that we take our next steps into the world. Remembering that first impressions are not always correct, you must always have faith in people, and most importantly you must always have faith in yourself. Congratulations class of 2004, we did it!

PAULETTE

Hey there! Welcome to the Hair Affair. You're with Paulette so you're in good hands. I'm sorta like Allstate, but for hair. (Elle says she wants to dye her blonde hair brunette) What? Brunette? Honey, (gestures to her hair) you're a genetic lotto win! Alright, something else is goin' on here. Back up. Whoa, whoa, whoa. Do you know the number one reason behind all bad hair decisions? Love. I can help you, I've been there before. When I need to relax I just put on this CD I bought from the store. (Puts on CD) There, isn't that relaxing? It's called Celtic Moods. Now let me tell you my story. I dreamed of marrying an Irishman. In a bar once I met this guy, Dewey. He told me he was from Ireland. He bought me 14 beers and so I lived with him for 10 years. I wanted to get married but he kept postponing. Still, I followed him around in a fog until he left. He took my savings and he took my dog Rufus. Now all that's left is this weird Enya song we're listening to.

EMMETT

Hi, Ms. Wyndham. I'm Emmett Forest. I'm co-counsel with Stidwell, Zyskowski, Fox and Callahan. These four interns are the cream of the crop at Harvard Law and we're here to "whip up" your legal defense. Incidentally, my mom's a big fan of your DVD's. Credits you with her nutcracker butt. Her words. Anywho, we'd love to discuss your case and go over a few choices. We want to free you as soon as possible, so you can bring your message back to your fans. Callahan briefed me on your meeting and there is a significant amount of evidence against you. To free you, the jury will need to hear an alibi. If we can't hear an alibi, you should accept a plea bargain. You'd get out in a couple of years. That sounds reasonable, right?

Warner

Thank you, ladies and gentlemen. It's an honor to be here with you all. This has been my dream for, well, a very long time. All my life I wanted to be a lawyer. Well, a lawyer was the first step. Then senator, married to a beautiful girl and with a huge estate, white picket fence and all. One of my earliest memories is of playing baseball with my father, and him telling me all about life as a senator. "You're going to love it, boy," he told me, and being a senator seemed like everything I'd ever wanted. Money, power, respect. The adoration of the people, and of a beautiful girl. That's all I'd ever really wanted. And while I did my fair share of partying during university - And I thank the members of my fraternity for never making those videos public- I never forgot that goal. My parents never let me forget it, and neither did my brother - I'm sure you've all met Senator Huntington and his wife
